Mr. Manley,

Thank you for getting back with me and providing the offer of judgment from Midland Credit Management.

I do have a question regarding the language in paragraph 4 of the offer however. The language there does not reflect claims asserted against Defendant "in this action" or "in Case No. 4:14cv00200 in the Eastern District of Texas."

The offer is acceptable to me if that language is included in paragraph 4 to clarify. I have no other issues with the language stated in the offer and the amount of costs would be limited to the costs incurred by me of filing the suit in Collin County of $41.00 plus the cost of service of process of $70.00 and other very minimal costs such as postage.

If you can make the change of language in paragraph 4 noted above and forward the revised offer to me I am willing to accept it and provide a fully detailed bill of costs so that we may get this matter resolved.

Please advise as to how we proceed on this. I appreciate your correspondence and the offer by your client and look forward to resolving this issue in the federal court in the short term.

Best Regards,

David Mack
